

PALOMA PINEDA

CINEMATOGRAPHER

Paloma was born in Peru, to a Peruvian father and a Finnish mother, she grew up and studied in France. She lives and works in Paris. After studying visual arts at ENSAAMA Olivier de Serres (National School of Art & Design), she graduated with a Master Degree in "Photography and Contemporary Art" at Paris 8 University in 2012. She started in Cinema as a camera assistant and now works as a cinematographer and photographer. Her work intertwines both mediums, questioning the relationships between static and moving images, and their common ability to tell stories.
