

ADRIEN LALLAU

CINEMATOGRAPHER

After studying at ESRA's School in Paris and getting his Degree specialty images, Adrien started to work immediately on shootings as an electrician, then as a chief electro for features, series (teleplay, Netflix), commercials and music videos.

His light team's experience gave him a special attraction for lighting technical challenges, (for example, the clip for artists Angèle feat Damso "Demons" and the film "Avellano SS22 & FW22" by Jean Charles Chavarin), but he is also very sensitive to natural light's aesthetic which appears in his work especially in his documentaries and photographs.
